County Report-August 16, 2024

Department Family Visitation

It was held on September 9, 2024. We had 104 paid Legion Family, 10 Distinguished Guests of the American Legion, 7 Distinguished Guests of the American Legion Auxiliary, and 5 Distinguished Guests of the Sons of The American Legion.

Even though it looks like a big success, ~~to me it wasn't~~ <sup>there were</sup> ~~only have~~ 104 paid Legion Family attending, ~~is a disgrace~~. I cannot do any more on bringing the cost of our functions down. The important item is that these are our Organization Leaders, and come to us to inform us of important events and items that are going on in the organization.

Membership

As everyone knows as of July 1 we are utilizing a new membership procedure. It seems that many have not read the letter sent out snail mail back in April explaining the procedure. It also seems that many are either not reading or avoiding the many emails sent out on the procedure. The following Post I have heard or not, or are missing items.

AMERICANISM
ARMY CAPT. FRED LA BOON

PCC AL FICLORA

October 25, 2024

Good evening Legionnaires.

These are the words of Army Capt. Fred LaBoon; AFTER RECENTLY FREED AS A POW
“We firmly believe in the democratic destiny of America and will always strive to preserve her freedoms,” he said. “We believe in the economic ability of our country to go ahead to new goals of prosperity, home establishment, family comfort and happiness. That is the hopefulness of youth. We believe in national security represented by preparedness, as the strongest adjunct to permanent peace – as protection for our prosperity, our homes and our families. We know the toll of unpreparedness. We believe in veterans’ organization such as is assembled in The American Legion. We believe in the principles of the Legion, in its program of care for the helpless or sick veteran, of care for his dependents, of interest in his employment or re-employment. We believe in an educated America, for ignorance is the abscess of national decay. Our desire is to take our place as freshmen on the Legion team. We will play the game for all that it is worth. But it will be with the principles of sportsmanship and fairness that you taught us in boyhood days.”

He was a thirty-year-old who spent three years as a prisoner of the Japanese after the fall of Bataan during World War II. He was

FORCED ON THE
BATAN DEATH MARCH

AMERICANISM

tortured, beaten and nearly starved to death, witnessing dozens of his comrades die in captivity. He was discharged on September 21, 1946 and later that year, in November 1945, <sup>HE</sup> ~~and~~ was elected American Legion National Vice Commander and then National Commander.

He was not alone in our history of the American Legion, forty-year-old former Lt. H. Dudley Swim, a Stanford-educated Navy reserve officer who had been assigned to active duty in 1942, was the first World War II-only veteran elected to serve as an American Legion Department Commander.

In November 1945, a month before LaBoon's medical discharge and as Swim was serving his term in Idaho, they were elected to flank National Commander John Stelle as American Legion national vice commanders, they were the first of their generation to rise to that office. Surprised as they were to reach that position, their elevation to top national leadership was by design, according to Stelle.

Swim told the NEC at the same meeting that "when I came out of World War II service a few months back, I turned to look for some means of carrying on as a living thing the principles which we had dedicated ourselves in this war." He said he found those means through The American Legion, particularly the Preamble to its Constitution, which he called a "masterpiece of life's principles."

Stelle, former governor of Illinois and key leader in the fight to pass the GI Bill, had trumpeted the importance of welcoming the new generation of World War II veterans, who by the end of his term would outnumber World War I veterans and propel the organization to its highest membership in history – 3,326,556.

Stelle told the NEC the values they were expected to uphold, along with the future they needed to drive.

"They will keep fixed before them the infallible principles of care of the sick, and disabled veteran and his dependents. They will interest themselves in the proper hospitalization of the veteran. They will attend to the essential legislation of national security in order to make permanent the peace they so nobly won. They will give their time and attention to child welfare, to Americanism – to God and country. So, we place the first foundation rock of this new milestone."

As we follow in their footprints let's remember the true values and principles to carry on,

GOD BLESS THE AMERICAN LEGION
GOD BLESS THE USA.

RE: Oratorical Contest Report for Nassau County Meeting October 25, 2024

Contestants. As before, an educator contact identified by prior 'phone calls to all High Schools in Nassau County, public and private, was notified about the contest by email during the first week of September. At this point we have indications that 10 or 11 students will participate so it appears we will have more than last year. Unfortunately, we did not ask that contestants let us know by a specified date their intent to participate. All we said was that we need the application and oration by November 23 so we will not know how many will participate until then. Next year we will ask that contestants let us know by October 20 or so of their intent.

Dates for competitions have been selected as follows and the Posts indicated have offered their facilities for which we are very appreciative. Special thanks to Seaford, obviously. Committee members please mark your calendars. These seven dates will accommodate up to 24 contestants. If we get 13-18 contestants we will need only five dates. More than 24 we will need to add dates.

Committee Reports – Eric Spinner

25 October 2024

Chaplain: Four Chaplains ceremony is scheduled for Sunday, 2 February 2025 at United Methodist Church of Hempstead. Arrangements and volunteer chaplains should all be confirmed by November meeting.

County Directory: The directory was updated two days ago, but we are still missing almost half of the Posts' information. Perhaps we can solve this dilemma if Posts would make a copy of their Annual Post Data Report (PDR) and their Post Officers Certification Form (OCF) and submit it to the County Membership Officer.

To eliminate this shortcoming in the future, we are going to approach Department to see if we can get the forms modified so that duplicate forms are sent to County when submitted.

Education & Scholarship: Preparation of letters to the schools to advertise the program, and donation request letters to the Posts is next on the agenda and should be ready for mailing by mid-December.

NassauLegion.net Website: The latest update re County meetings is online, and the October-November County Events calendar is also online.

Oratorical Committee: I will be contacting the schools in the Valley Stream and Elmont districts to confirm that they have received the contest applications and to encourage them to enter contestants. All other matters regarding Oratorical are being spearheaded by Dennis Duffy.

Legion/VFW Members

I hope this finds you well. I had Life Scout Eyal Englander approach me with respect to an Eagle Project. He would like to have an Eagle Project that helps, serves or honors our Veterans. I'm reaching out to you all to see if there is a project that you have been thinking of that can somehow serve or honor the Veteran Community. Projects vary and can be from cleaning up/renovating a room, organizing and redoing food pantries, coordinating and building out a memorial or even renovating a veteran's memorial project. The project should be multifaceted to demonstrate leadership, management, coordination etc. Fundraising is also a must.

We just wrapped up 2 large Scout projects in New Hyde Park so I don't have anything at the moment.

Let me know if you know of a project or can think of a project that Eyal can possibly do.

Thanks in advance.

Kerry, Dawn - If you want to raise this as new business at this Friday's County Meeting, please do.

God Bless

Rainer Burger, Commander
